

7/7/89

Dear Dan,

I was going through old files and found these photos. I thought you'd enjoy seeing copies because they show a Yippie demonstration during the Pentagon Papers trial. The Yippies gathered in front of the Federal courthouse in Foley Square on 6/18/71 and demanded the closing of the NY Times and the execution of Arthur Sulzberger for treason for publishing the Pentagon Papers!

Stu Albert says he and Abbie thought up the idea of the demonstration to make the point that the Rosenbergs were executed for the same crime the NY Times committed. (Stu is shown with the Remember the Rosenberg placard.) I'm not sure that point actually came across but the Yippies relished the opportunity to demonstrate against the NY Times.
